Enrolment rush at Oxfordshire's most successful college

Abingdon and Witney College is once again receiving a high level of enquiries and interest in enrolments, as students across the county respond to GCSE and A Level results.

The college is currently enrolling students on full and part-time courses, with many people seeking advice and guidance about how best to reach their career goals. The college has also seen an increase in the rise of applications for higher education courses such a foundation degrees, honours degrees, HNCs and professional courses, as more and more individuals are looking at studying closer to home.

Marija Murthwaite, Careers Adviser at the College, explains "We are still getting very high volumes of enquires and encourage all undecided students to call or drop in to get advice if they are still unsure about their options or their future. If you think A Levels might not be right for you, you might like to consider a full-time vocational course which is the equivalent of 3 A Levels, so you'll still be able get into university. Many people are also showing an interest in the university level courses we have on offer at the College as well as professional qualifications in accounting, leadership and management and human resource practice, which can help those looking for promotion."

Principal Teresa Kelly says "We are extremely proud that for the second year running, Abingdon and Witney College is in the top 10% of colleges nationally and officially Oxfordshire's most successful college. The Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) has commended the enhancement of student learning opportunities as exceeding UK expectations."

POLICE CHIEF PRAISES TOWN'S RESILIENCE

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THE new police commander has praised Didcot residents for the way they handled tragedies that have rocked the town in the last few months.

Local Police Area (LPA) commander, Acting Superintendent Jim O'Ryan, 49, spoke out on Monday in his first interview since stepping up to the role on an interim basis in April.

He covers South Oxfordshire and Vale of White Horse, taking over from Chief Superintendent Andy Boyd.

He took on the role just weeks before the triple murder of a Didcot family in May this year.

A/Supt O'Ryan said: "What I learnt from the traumatic events in Didcot were that it showed me how well engaged the community was with the police and how well the two worked together during the tragedy.

"For a big event like that to happen in a market town in South Oxfordshire, which brought significant media scrutiny upon it, it surprised me how extremely resilient the town were in what was a very rare event."

The bodies of Janet Jordan, 48, her partner, Phillip Howard, 44 and their six-year-old daughter Derin Jordan, were found at their home in Vicarage Road on May 23.

The town responded by tying hundreds of brightly coloured ribbons to signs and lampposts around the town in tribute.

New police chief's online ambitions

THE new Local Police Area Commander for South Oxfordshire and the Vale has said that police forces in the area are looking to do their job more through an online format rather than the face-to-face reporting of old.

Acting Superintendent Jim O'Ryan, who took the role on an interim basis in April, taking over from Chief Superintendent Andy Boyd, is looking to prioritise the force as a focal presence in communities and to be able to work on the move, using the technology that's available to them.

A/Supt O'Ryan also hopes to carry out regular visits to the area's stations and have his face known to the communities that he serves.

He told the Guardian: "My role is to keep people safe and my priority in this role is make sure my team are really clear about what the police are all about and what our job is.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"I want our neighbourhood teams to be in and out around the communities, helping them solve problems and preventing crime.

"My style is to be very visible to the community and make sure people know who I am, what I'm there for and how we, the police, can make their area a safer place to live in."

The new Commander says that the 'general trend' for police forces is to move more police resources online.

He said: "It's the general trend to move services online and we do a lot of work online for residents anyway.

"Policing can be delivered online a lot of the time. You couldn't get a crime number when contacting the police before, now you get that and an officer to constantly updates you.

• New Local Police Area commander Jim O'Ryan

"I check most of my emails on my smartphone and later this year we're going to have a further roll out of smart phones across the force so our staff will be better able to do their duties on the go."

A/Supt O'Ryan began his policing career in Liverpool as a special constable, before joining Thames Valley Police in 1991.

He has worked as an inspector in Thame and a deputy commander in Milton Keynes before taking up his new role.

A/Supt O'Ryan said on taking on the new role: "I was really pleased to be asked, it was a great opportunity for me and a big advantage of this area is that we have some really strong communities here."

OXFORD: The 8th Cowley Classic Car Show raised over £5,000 for charity.

Half marathon

OXFORD: The Oxford Half Marathon is set for 2000 more runners this year with three weeks still left to sign up.

Last year 4461 took part in the 13 mile event and event organisers G02 say over 6,500 have signed up for 2015.

The event will take place on October 11 and the closing date for entries is September 14.

Police to remain as a 'presence' at Wallingford site

THE new Local Police Area (LPA) Commander for the Wallingford area has emphasised that police will have a presence in the plans for the Wallingford Police Station which has seen part of the site go up for sale.

Jim O'Ryan, the new LPA Commander for South Oxfordshire and the Vale, said that 'there is a lot to be worked through' but that Thames Valley Police are working on how best to use the site.

He told the Guardian: "The way people communicate with us is changing and I'm optimistic that we are going to see improvements in the way we manage our IT resources on the force.

"Plans are still being developed about what to do with the Wallingford site and there's a lot to be worked through. We will have a police presence there but not in the same scale we had before."

The Oxfordshire Guardian previously reported that there discussions were taking place to move the police into Wallingford library or Town Hall.

Police put the surplus land around the station in Reading Road up for sale in February this year.

Initial bids for the site were received in May this year and were being considered by the police last month.

The station is due to just be a front counter by March 2016.

When asked if the force could still potentially make use of the town hall or library for some police services, A/Supt O'Ryan said: "There's some potential in it but no imminent decisions are to be expected."

Contactor chosen for £20m tower block refurb

OXFORD City Council are set to appoint a contractor to tackle the £20m refurbishment of five high rise residential tower blocks with work set to begin early next year.

Hertfordshire-based Willmott Dixon Energy Services Ltd have been proposed as the contractors after a rigorous tender process that included interviews with residents, officers and expert external consultants.

The towers included in the refurbishment are Evenlode and Windrush tower in Blackbird Leys, Foresters in Wood Farm, Hockmore in Cowley and Plowman in Northway.

Cllr Scott Seamons, Board Member for Housing and Property Services, said: "This is a very important and much awaited project for the Council and residents in the blocks.

"We welcome the proposed appointment of Willmott Dixon, they are world class developers."

The works include repairs to the communal structure, over-cladding, replacing the windows, upgrading the communal electrics and fire safety systems.

The proposed developers recently completed the Blackbird Leys Pools and Leisure centre in Pegasus Road.

The City Council are set to consult tenants and leaseholders on the proposed contractor with work on the blocks set to begin with the Blackbird Leys towers in early 2016.

The contractor will be formally appointed after a 30 day consultation of leaseholders are required by law.

Schoolgirl's petition against mobile ban

A 14-YEAR-OLD Didcot Girls' School student has launched a petition against her school's plan to ban students from using their mobile phones during school breaks and lunch time.

Sophie Sheppard, 14, from East Hagbourne set up the petition campaigning against the new rule this month and has since amassed 439 signatures.

She told the Guardian: "I think it's a bit strange to bring this ban in as I would not have thought of students using their phones in breaks as a problem.

"If an emergency comes up, we will have to use the school phone and that could mean us not being the first person to know about issues we may have at home.

"This could be an issue as some students will not want

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

to have to tell the school about their home life."

The rule, which comes into force when school starts in next month after the summer holidays, mean that for the student's 45-minute lunch break and two 15-minute breaks, they will not be able to use their mobile phones, which will have to be kept in their bags.

If a student needs to get hold of their parent in an emergency, or if their parent/carer needs to get in touch with the student, it will be done through the school phone and not through mobiles.

Didcot Girls School's head teacher Rachael Warwick said that the rule is being introduced to help the students to socialise face-to-face with one another and to participate in the lunch-time clubs that are available to them.

Mrs Warwick said: "We are concerned about the amount of time young people spend online, and many of our parents also have concerns about the amount of time their children are spending online and they are very much in support of this change."

She added: "We will continue to ensure that parents who need to contact their children are able to do so during the school day and vice versa.

"In the case of emergencies, parents tend to want to speak to the school before going straight to the student and I don't think it's intrusive of us."

Mrs Warwick informed the • Didcot Girls School in Manor Crescent.

Guardian that she intends to talk to students about the rule change when the school reopens.

Sophie's petition also states that boys' school St Birinus School in Didcot is adopting the same measures.

Mrs Warwick; said she has had 'discussions' with the school about it but that St. Birinus is planning a different measure for its students.

The Guardian was awaiting comment from St. Birinus as we went to press last night.

Didcot new police chief speaks after May murders

•Ribbon tributes in Didcot

• From front page

Ms Jordan's son, Jed Allen, 21, was wanted in connection with the murders - but his body was found in Oxford two days later.

A/Supt O'Ryan was also full of praise for the neighbourhood team working in Didcot at the time.

He said: "They got a lot of feedback about how well the team responded to the incident.

"We had additional patrols in the area and had to keep quite a high profile.

"We had to reassure people, especially those in the neighbouring properties, and I personally went down myself, to show them that I was there and to make sure that our officers were doing the right thing."

Town leaders have suggested that with the town's continuing expansion, there may need to be extra police patrols to deal with the increase in population.

Didcot Town Council leader Charlie Robertson raised concerns during a town council debate on plans to build 400 homes on the site of Didcot A Power Station last month.

A/Supt O'Ryan said: "One of the nicest aspects of living in Didcot is that residents feel safe due to the low levels of crime; therefore, an increase of police presence proportional to the increase in population would be a sensible approach.

"Didcot is arguably going through its greatest period of invested growth and we need to make sure the decisions made best serve the residents of the town for long-term sustainability."

In response to the calls for more patrols in Didcot, A/Supt O'Ryan said that the force would have to prioritise where they focus patrols as the police budget is set to be stretched amid cuts.

He said: "Population doesn't bring crime in itself, neither does greater volumes of people.

"We have a finite number of resources and staff here but we have dedicated neighbourhood teams to do their job.

"We are undoubtedly going to find our resources becoming more stretched over the coming years and I promise that we will focus our resources where we need to put them, and that will be based around the amount of crime and where they need to go."

Drug dealer forced to forfeit £5000 by court

A WITNEY man has been forced to forfeit £5,000 cash after being sentenced to four years and six months in prison for conspiracy to supply Class A drugs.

Richard Gray, 26, of Stenter Rise in Witney had the Cash Forfeiture Order made against him at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Monday for £5,099.57.

Phillip Croxson, from the Economic Crime Unit, said: "Confiscation proceedings are still ongoing against both Richard Gray and Patrick Gray."

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Gray and his brother Patrick, 37, of Radford Close in Oxford, were seen visiting a field near Thrupp Lane in Littleworth where police officers later discovered a plastic chewing gum pot containing approximately 25 wraps of suspected Class A drugs in February.

The same location was visited by the brothers on several occasions.

On February 19 the Grays drove to a wooded area near Uffington Gorse in a red VW Gold where Patrick went into the woods.

A search of the woods by police revealed a tupperware box containing a large amount of suspected Class A drugs.

The two brothers were arrested at the location the following day and the drugs were seized.

Evidence of drug dealing was found in the VW and the drugs were found to be crack cocaine and heroine with an estimated street value of £12,000.

The two men were charged with conspiracy to supply Class A drugs on April 2 at Oxford Crown Court

Both men pleaded guilty.

Richard Gray was sentenced to 54 months in prison, and Patrick Gray five and a half years.

University buses granted national green award

OXFORD Brookes University has been given a national environmental award for its BROOKESbus fleet.

The university received the Green Apple Environmental Award for Environmental Best Practice 2015 for the use of Gyrodrive in its buses.

The transport solutions manager at the university, Helen Russell-Emmerson, said: "We are really proud that our BROOKESbuses have won such an important environmental award.

"It shows that the work we've been doing and our partnership with Oxford Bus Company has really made an impact in Oxford."

The award was announced last week on August 12.

Gyrodrive is an environmentally friendly technology, which reduces CO2 emissions and was originally used in Formula One.

The BROOKESbuses are the first time the technology has been fitted to buses in the UK.

The university competed against 500 nominations in the Environmental Best Practice category and is set to be awarded with a trophy and a certificate in the Houses of Parliament on Monday 16 November.

The awards are run by The Green Organisation who campaign to find the greenest companies, councils and communities in the UK.

Oxford Brookes fitted the Gyrodrive systems to their buses in September 2014 and say they have reduced the BROOKESbus CO2 emissions by 17 per cent.

The university will also have a paper published in The Green Book – an international reference guide that aims to give examples of best environmental practice- published by The Green Organisation

Concerns over 'prison-like' student hall plans

• Designs of the accommodation overlooking Holywell Cemetery.

A CIVIC group has called proposed student accommodation plans next to a historic cemetery as similar to living in a 19th century prison.

Oxford Civic Society have raised concerns over £40m plans submitted by The University of Oxford's Merton College and developer McLaren Property to build a housing complex off Manor Place in Oxford.

The plans include three pavilion buildings based around a central single level building.

The society believe the buildings are not in sync with the college's appearance and that the buildings would leave the Holywell Cemetery in St Cross Road in 'almost perpetual shadow.'

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Peter Thompson, Chairman of the Civic Society, said: "We brought these issues up with the developers in a pre-application consultation in January and we were grateful for that, however it doesn't seem that the developers have taken our concerns into account."

"If I was a student I certainly would not want to live in what is similar to A-Wing of Oxford Castle when it was a prison in the 19th century."

Mr Thompson added: "It's bizarre that as it's an application for student housing that the college have implied to us that they have no interest in using it to house their students despite that being the stance of the developers."

Paul Erskine, spokesperson for McLaren Property said: "McLaren Property and Merton College have the obligation to maximise the potential of the site to meet an acknowledged urgent need for new student accommodation."

The planning application for the site was submitted in June this year with a decision due by the end of the year.

The Oxfordshire Guardian was yet to recieve comment from Merton College as we went to press.

Engineer wins silver

AN RAF Benson aircraft engineer won a silver medal whilst representing his county at the WorldSkills competition in Brazil this month.

Senior Aircraftman (Technician) Shayne Hadland, 24, came second in the Sao Paulo competition in the aircraft-engineering category from August 11 until 16.

He competed in seven different tasks against 15 other countries, which included daily inspection, cable rigging, engine boroscoping and sheet metal fabrication, which he was tasked to complete in a given time.

SAC(T) Hadland was given the honour of flag bearer for the UK team and was the sole competitor to represent the UK in his trade at the competition which is in its 43rd year.

He said: "It feels amazing as it was such a once in a lifetime opportunity and I was delighted to represent my country.

"By competing in your trade, it raises the standards within the trade and hopefully it inspires young people to pursue a career in it."

Stalemate for Oxford greyhound track fate

• Oxford Stadium in Sandy Lane.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THE likelihood of greyhound racing and speedway returning to Oxford Stadium is looking bleak after Oxford City Council leader Bob Price called the ongoing situation over the stadium 'pessimistic' and 'not particularly good'.

The city council and owners of the site, Greyhound Racing Association (GRA) Acquisition Ltd are believed to be in a 'stalemate' over the stadium's future after the council listed the building in Sandy Lane as an asset of community value this June.

Galliard Homes previously submitted a planning application last year to build 220 homes on the site and the city council managed to protect the site from further redevelopment by making it a conservation area.

GRA Acquisitions Ltd contested this in a legal battle however, Mr Justice Ouseley dismissed the appeal in January at the Royal Courts of Justice in London.

Cllr Price said: "We understand that there have been bidders that have expressed interest in the site and have submitted very good offers to re-open the stadium for greyhound racing and speedway.

"However, the owners are not interested, which makes it a very pessimistic situation at the moment and it's not particularly good for the stadium's future."

Andrew Smith MP has championed efforts to restore the stadium to its original use, submitting a petition with Save Oxford Stadium Chairman Ian Sawyer to the city council this January that had around 3,000 signatures.

Mr Smith said: "The whole situation is very frustrating. The owners are adamant that they want to demolish the site for housing but it's designated for recreation.

"The community will campaign against the plans but it doesn't look as though we'll see a change any time soon."

Ian Sawyer says that he is 'in conversation' with GRA Acquisitions Ltd about the site's future and that having the site listed as a community asset 'was a massive boost'.

He said: "We are in conversations with them to look at what they are trying to do but there's a current stalemate at the moment over what's going to be end result."

Andy Cooper, owner of Karting Oxford, which is based in the stadium, was optimistic of a return to the stadium's original use.

He said: "It doesn't make financial sense for the developers to continue to own it but not lease it. It would solve everyone's problems by just returning it to its original use."

The city council are set to produce a management plan for the stadium site to say how it will be maintained.

It is expected to take a year to complete.

Oxfordshire students warned about live television streaming

STUDENTS in Oxfordshire need to stay up to date with rules on watching live television according to TV Licensing who enforce TV licenses.

According to research released by TV Licensing 50 per cent of students surveyed believed recording a live episode of Game of Thrones to watch later was 'catch-up TV'.

The results of the survey, which were published on Tuesday, also said one in five students thought live streaming the Wimbledon final on iPlayer was 'catch up TV'.

Oxford Brookes student Sophie Ashton said: "If I'm watching TV on my laptop I wouldn't necessarily think to define it as 'live' or 'catch up'. I'll often be watching Game of Thrones, football or a film on Netflix, but sometimes I use YouTube and iPlayer too.

"Having all these definitions can sometimes make it confusing to understand when a license is needed especially when it's all just TV to me."

The survey was carried out among 1,000 students across the UK earlier this year by youth market research company YouthSight.

85 per cent of Oxfordshire students surveyed correctly said watching an episode of The Only Way is Essex on ITV player would be an example of catch up TV.

Martin Dyan from TV Licensing for the South East said: "We understand students are streaming, downloading, recording, using catch-up services and watching live TV on devices.

"There are so many ways to watch the programmes you love, so to help undergraduates decide if they need to buy a license, we are encouraging them to read the FAQs at tvlicensing.co.uk/studentinfo."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truthis that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

OXFORD: A leisure boat caught fire on the River Thames in Central Oxford on Saturday at around 3.30pm.

Oxfordshire County Council's fire and rescue service extinguished the fire using a high-pressure hose-reel jet, preventing the fire from causing an LPG cylinder to rupture.

Van indecency

WHEATLEY: Three girls saw a man carrying out a lewd act while he was sat in a parked white van in London Road, Wheatley.

Two 12-year-old girls and a 13-year-old girl saw the incident at around 2.50pm on August 7 and the offender drove away from the scene shortly after.

The offender is white, about 30-years-old, with short dark hair and stubble.

School works

OXFORD: Oxford City Council have approved plans to erect a 4-storey extension to the Colin Sanders Building of Magdalen College School's Sixth Form Centre.

Plans includes revised car and cycle parking for the entrance quad in Cowley Place.

Concerns for 1200 home development

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A PETITION opposing a 1200 home development in Woodstock has gathered support from across the country.

Some residents have raised fears about the urbanisation of the green spaces near Blenheim Palace near the town.

The Oxfordshire Guardian has also received documents revealing Cherwell District Council officers said there is planning policy objection to the designs.

Woodstock resident Atalanta Willcox, who launched the online petition, said: "The scale of it is almost unimaginable.

"Blenheim is a world heritage site. This proposed development would drastically transform the rural setting of the palace"

The petition was launched last Tuesday and has so far gathered 172 signatures.

The development, known as Woodstock East, would also include a 120-unit care village, a new primary school and football stadium.

The proposals cross the border between Cherwell District Council and West Oxfordshire District Council and planning applications have been submitted to both authorities.

Ms Willcox, who lives in Hill Rise, added: "It would double the size of the town.

"Its not just local people signing the petition. It's people from all over the country.

"We're supported by a wide range of people locally and across the UK. We've had signatures from Oxfordshire, Leeds Sussex, Kent, Worcester and Devon."

Cherwell District Council received the application in December 2014 and is likely to be considered by council's planning committee on October 1.

West Oxfordshire District Council's planning committee is likely to consider the application on September 22.

However, an internal memo received by the Oxfordshire Guardian revealed planning officers believe there is a planning policy objection to the proposals.

The memo, sent from the head of strategic planning, said: "There is a planning policy objection to the proposed development as it does not accord with the adopted or emerging development strategies of the Local Plans of either Cherwill or West Oxfordshire."

Woodstock town councillor Sharone Parnes said:"If it's going to be refused we don't think this will be the end of the application. We don't know if they will either appeal it or submit a duplicate application."

Daniel Hayman, on behalf of applicants Pye Homes - based in Kidlington - and the Blenheim Estate, said: "The proposals are being brought forward to deliver a long term solution to the housing issues facing many people slowly being priced out of Oxfordshire."

Five charged with fraud

FIVE Oxfordshire men have been charged with fraud offences following a warrant earlier this year.

The warrant was executed by the South East Regional Organised Crime Unit and Thames Valley Police at a property in Danebrook Court, Langford Lane in Kidlington on March 4.

Paul Cox, 40, of Acremead Road in Wheatley was charged on August 5 with conspiracy to commit fraud by false representation, contrary to section 1 of the Fraud Act 2006 and blackmail, contrary to section 21 of Theft Act 1968.

Alistair Barnard, 38, of Bampton Road, Aston in Bampton was charged on August 6 with conspiracy to commit fraud by false representation.

Jon Townsend, 36, of Pensclose in Witney was charged on August 6 with conspiracy to commit fraud by false representation.

Steve Davies, 34, of Yeats Close in Oxford was charged on August 6 with conspiracy to commit fraud by false representation.

Paul Streeter, 40, of Blakes Avenue in Witney was charged on August 13 with conspiracy to commit fraud by false representation.

The men have all been bailed to appear at Banbury Magistrates' Court September 7.

Oxfordshire's A-level students celebrate results day success

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk
& Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORDSHIRE'S A-level grades are up on last year after thousands of students across the county ended weeks of nerves and opened their results last Thursday.

Most students were keen to find out if they had got their place at university.

Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) reported more students had achieved two or more A-levels at A* to E grades than last year.

OCC cabinet member for children, education and families, Melinda Tilley, said: "Congratulations to all students receiving their A-level results today.

"Results day is an important milestone following years of hard work on the part of the young people"

OCC said 96 per cent of students in the county gained two or more A-levels at A* to E grade, up on 2014s number of 95.1 per cent.

The council also said around 50 per cent of students have achieved two or more A-levels between A* and B grades, up from 46.7 per cent last year.

Full results are due to be published later in the year.

Natascha Blesing, 18, from Faringdon school is celebrating continued success after getting four A*s this year.

This follows 13 A*s in her GCSEs two years ago and one A* A-level last year.

She is now going on to study natural sciences at Jesus College, Cambridge

Cheney School in Headington celebrated a set of outstanding results, improving on last year's overall grades.

Around 57 per cent of students achieved A* to B grades, up from 49 per cent in 2014, and 11 students achieved A*AA or better.

Heather Doherty, head of the sixth form, said: "The results this year are extraordinary and testament to the hard work of Cheney's wonderful students and their dedicated teachers.

"We are particularly pleased that so many have secured places at the universities of their choice in this competitive climate."

Students at Wantage's King Alfred's Academy in Portway had an early start for results day with doors opening at 7.30am.

The Sixth Form building was alive with the celebrations and commiserations of 17 and 18-year-olds opening their results.

Elfi Collings, 18, from Wantage scooped two A*s and a B in English literature, media studies and psychology.

She said: "I got an email this morning to say my first choice university accepted me."

Elfi is set to go to Winchester School of Arts to study games design and art.

She added: "I'm really scared about moving away. I've never been away from home for longer than a week."

Tim Lawrence, the head of sixth form at King Alfred's said: "We are so proud of our students."

Overall 60 per cent of the 145 pupils picking up their results achieved between A* and B Grades.

At Oxford High School more than 20 per cent of students are starting university in September at Oxford or Cambridge.

Landlord fined over £5k in HMO licence breach

AN Oxford Landlord has had to pay over £5,000 for failing to comply with HMO licence conditions for a property on Cowley Road.

Mr Jianhua Wang, of Nicholson Road, was found guilty of failing to comply with HMO licence conditions at Oxford Magistrates' Court on August 3 and fined £3,000.

He was also ordered to pay legal costs of £2,444.

More people lived in the property than the house permitted and Mr Wang had also failed to provide Oxford City Council with a current gas safety certificate.

Cllr Scott Seamons, board member for housing and property services, said: "The council brought in HMO licensing to improve standards and management of HMOs.

"Landlords who fail to comply with conditions are not taking their legal responsibilities seriously and leaving tenants at risk in poor condition houses. It is important to raise awareness that failing to comply with legal conditions is a serious matter."

The Council has prosecuted 50 cases since 2011 when HMO licensing was first adopted, with 43 cases relating to HMO offences and seven relating to illegal eviction and harassment of tenants.

A public consultation on proposals to renew the scheme for is currently being held.

Councils set to decide Sunday trading hours?

TWO Oxfordshire councils could be devolved power from government to choose Sunday trading hours for larger shops.

South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) and Vale of White Horse District Council have launched a public consultation to gauge opinion.

The government launched a consultation into devolved powers this month.

SODC cabinet member for economic development, Robert Simister, said: "Its very important for us to listen to what people think and ensure our response to government accurately reflects people's views."

Under current laws, shops with more than 280 square meters of floor space can only open for up to six hours between 10am and 6pm on Sundays.

Smaller shops can open all day.

Cllr Matthew Barber, leader of Vale council, said: "we want to hear how you may be affected if Sunday trading laws are devolved and we are given powers to make trading hours more flexible."

The consultation is open until Thursday September 10 and the government's consultation until September 16.

Pensioner praises age charity's work

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

AN Oxford pensioner has praised the work of an Oxfordshire charity to help him enjoy his later years in life after a two-month stay at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington.

John Carberry, 90, who lives in Marston, was a formerly fit and active cyclist before he had to undergo open-heart surgery, requiring an extended stay in hospital.

To help him get back on his feet John was referred to the Circles of Support pilot project run by charity Age UK Oxfordshire which is aiming to ease the levels of bed-blocking in Oxfordshire hospitals.

Oxfordshire hospitals are said to be among the worst in the country for bed blocking, according to figures released by NHS England.

John told the Guardian: "I'm absolutely thrilled with the care they've shown for me. They told me they will get me my food, drink, do all my shopping, and make sure the house is comfortable for me and they've completely followed through.

• Mr Carberry was at John Radcliffe Hospital for two months before he was able to leave.

"They are there for me every day, with any inquiry I might have and they are such lovely folk."

John is now a regular at two lunch clubs, a book club and is planning to join a gym.

Age UK Oxfordshire secured funding this month from the Cabinet Office and the Oxford Health Charity of £165,000 to continue Circles of Support until April 2016.

John added: "I know that I shall be helped by Age UK for the rest of my life, and I could not be happier about it."

Paul Cann, chief executive of Age UK Oxfordshire, said: "It is of huge concern that we allow our older people to decline physically and mentally, and to get stuck in the care system without the help they need to live life their way."

Win an evening at The Pointer

Your chance to win dinner for 4 plus a bottle of champagne

THE Pointer is a real village pub at the centre of the local community where you can eat fantastic, locally sourced food. Wherever possible, produce comes from The Pointer's own farm and estate overseen by Stockman Jamie Brewer and Estates Manager Paul Gough. Produce direct from the farm includes beef from the very best free range English Longhorn cattle which is aged for a minimum of 30 days; and pork from the farm's rare breed Middle White pigs.

Since joining in December 2014, new head chef Mini Patel and his team are delighted to have been awarded two AA Rosettes in The Pointer restaurant. Mini's menus change daily and are founded on carefully sourced produce and simple British classics with creative twists, all cooked and presented beautifully.

Closing date:
Friday, September 9, 2015

Adjacent to The Pointer pub and restaurant is the butcher, run by husband and wife team Jon and Anna Wilkins. Pointer owner, David Howden, and butcher Jon Wilkins have shared a love of food and passion for farming for many years and it finally led them to open the butcher two years ago. Similar to the pub, the butcher is a focal point for Brill's local community, providing up to 160 meals a day for the neighbouring school during term time, attracting families on a weekly basis to purchase their free-range meat, eggs and preserves and providing produce for The Pointer restaurant and pub.

The Pointer restaurant, pub and butchers sit in a prime and beautiful location in Brill, Buckinghamshire, with routes towards Oxford, Bicester and central London. The local train stations are Haddenham and Thame Parkway, only ten minutes by car or Bicester Town, which is 15 minutes away.

Win dinner for four with a bottle of champagne at The Pointer by answering this simple questions:

Q: Which rare breed of pig is reared on the farm?

Advertorial

Save money with trusted companies such as G2S

OWNER of G2S Group Alan Williams: "This industry is full of liars and cheats."

Owner and co-founder of G2S Group Ltd, Alan Williams speaks out against those tarnishing the reputation of the double-glazing industry and the dodgy, high-pressure sales tactics that are often associated with it.

"I get so tired and angry at some of the things that I hear are happening in this industry; how some people are being treated. I don't blame customers for being sceptical or nervous after some of the horror stories out there" said Alan. There is no doubt that the double-glazing industry carries some negative connotations and there's certainly no one out there that looks forward to pricing up new windows, doors or a conservatory.

It all started with the door-to-door salesmen. Lurking, pestering and preying on the vulnerable. "When we started this company I insisted that we would never use door to door sales tactics, we never have done and we never will."

We've all heard of the salesmen that visit, quote a stupidly high price and then 'do a special deal' and manage to cut that price in "half". This cringe-worthy tactic is supposed to make people believe that they are getting a special price just for them. When we asked Alan about deals that his company offer, he said, "The price we quote is the price you pay. If we have a special offer running, then it will be advertised to everyone with no hidden surprises and we don't condone any of this 'buy one get one free' nonsense."

The best way to avoid getting stuck in 'the dark side' of the industry is to always use a reputable company; a company that has been recommended by a friend and has good reviews. Be wary of 'special deals' that are offered to you in person when getting a quote. There should be no haggling. You're not buying a knock-off watch down the market; you are making a major investment to improve your home. This doesn't mean avoid deals altogether, as there are plenty of money saving opportunities to be had with trusted companies such as G2S. Just remember, always get quotes from various companies and the moment this haggling malarkey comes into play, show them the door.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

BRIDELICIOUS BOUTIQUE

As a child, Heather Churchman was never able to pass a church wedding without stopping with her mum to catch a glimpse of the bride. "Brides are special – a woman on her big day in the perfect dress gives out an inner glow," says Heather, owner of Wallingford's Bridelicious Boutique. "Every day I do this job, the passion never fades." Opened in 2011, the Bridelicious team have recently been nominated for the national Guides for Brides customer service award. This accolade is well earned thanks to the team's one-to-one, free, private consultations for brides-to-be. Heather, who has been married for 26 years and is mum to three boys ("so I'll never be mother of the bride!") says the shop is a female-friendly affair ("what happens in the shop stays in the shop!"). Arrange a visit to discuss which of the Oxfordshire exclusive designer gowns – ranging from £500 to £2,000 and including Eternity Brides, Art Couture, Rembo Styling, House of Nicholas and Impression – is perfect for you.

A SUMMER wedding offers some gorgeous wedding theme possibilities from elegant to feminine wedding day styles.

Before considering flowers, dresses, decoration, invitations, outfit, it is first of all vital to consider what you want your day to be: super stylish, cool and relaxed, rustic, urban, retro, vintage or romantic.

Celtic

With St Patrick's day in March, there are lots of ways to include an Irish theme.

Make a harvest knot to wear on your wedding day, or place one in your bouquet to symbolize your Irish heritage. Have a Ceilidh with traditional Irish dances.

Wear Irish Lace,and serve a traditional Irish Wedding Feast. Give Celtic-inspired gifts marked with the claddagh (two hands and a heart),Give love Tokens of Hair - they're symbolic of acceptance.

Cherry Blossoms

Cherry blossoms stand for virtue and new beginnings .Have a thick layer of flower petals carpeting the aisle For centrepieces, use compact flowers like hydrangeas or peonies with crystal-beaded willow for dramatic height, and scatter petals generously.

Hand your bridesmaids parasols, or fans. Coordinate all your gowns with beautiful, rich brocade sashes. To add a bit of glow, hang round paper lanterns from the ceiling,

Butterfly

A springtime bride might pair butterflies with blossoming branches and pastel petit fours, wear pretty silver and rhinestone jewellery sets. Have the groom wear a single fabric butterfly in his buttonhole.

Dress flower girls in wings and carry a white satin petal basket that's filled with butterfly petals instead of the usual rose petals.

39 BEAUTY

Brides (and bridal parties) are in expert hands at 39 Beauty in Witney's Corn Street. Full bridal packages (£130) can be tailored to each individual's requirements. marriage care

Prepare for your marriage, not just the wedding day

They say that love is blind, but it makes much more sense to go into marriage with your eyes open. When did you last talk about you as a couple? Are you taking the 'happily ever after' part for granted and getting caught up in the excitement of the wedding day?

Marriage Care, a national charity with over 65 years of experience helping couples, knows that enduring relationships need nurturing and cultivating.

A Marriage Preparation workshop looks at building and maintaining happy relationships, avoiding the pitfalls and supporting you to build the best possible future together. During the day you are encouraged to consider things that will nurture a lifelong relationship and understand how relationships grow when important issues are dealt with in a constructive and loving way.

Some couples prefer a more individual approach called FOCCUS. A trained facilitator works with you as a couple to explore how your relationship works, its strengths and potential issues, in a supportive and confidential environment.

Most people plan for the big things in life and getting married is no different. Over 2,000 couples have done this in Oxford over the past 20 years, with overwhelmingly positive feedback, why not check it out for yourself?

Call us on 0800 389 3801 (01159 934 255 mobile rate), email oxford.centre@marriagecare.org or visit our website at www.marriagecare.org.uk to book a course.

MARRIAGE CARE

'Happy ever after' is, of course, the fairytale ending to any wedding. But sometimes you can be so caught up in the thrill of your big day itself that the focus can shift away from what's most important. Marriage Care is a national charity, specialising in adult couple relationships and they offer a one-day Marriage Preparation workshop held in Oxford. Groups of up to 12 couples are offered insights into building and maintaining a strong relationship. People from all different ages and backgrounds can benefit from this programme. By going into marriage with your eyes open, Marriage Care helps couples prepare for successful, long-term relationships and avoid various relationship pitfalls. If you'd prefer something more tailor-made for you as a couple, Marriage Care offers a programme called FOCCUS, starting off with an online questionnaire online, followed by up to two 1½-hour sessions with a trained facilitator who will explore with you how your relationship works, its strengths and potential issues, in a safe, supportive and confidential environment. More than 2,000 Oxfordshire couples have signed up over the past 20 years, with overwhelmingly positive feedback.

Please telephone 0800 389 3801(mobile rate 01159 934 255) or visit www.marriagecare.org.uk to find out more.

Foodies Festival makes Oxford return

FOODIES Festival is set to make its return to Oxford this month.

If you were struggling to think of plans for next week's Bank Holiday Weekend then look no further, as the Foodies Festival returns to Oxford from Saturday August 29 to Monday August 31.

Located at South Parks, Oxford is just one of the cities the well-liked event will visit, as places such as Brighton, Birmingham, Bristol, Edinburgh, Harrogate and London have all experienced the popular food festival.

And now in it's 10th year, next weekend's festival will be the sixth consecutive year that Foodies would have been in Oxford, which pleases organizer and founder Sue Hitchin.

• Last year's MatserChef winner Ping Coombes

"I am very excited to bring Foodies Festival back for the August Bank Holiday as we are always so warmly received by Oxford visitors," Sue told the Guardian.

"Included in your ticket price is an opportunity to see a top local chef prepare a signature summer recipe, enjoy a craft beer, wine or champagne master class or improve your baking skills in the Cake & Bake Theatre. And this year there is a new tasting theatre.

"So Foodies Festival is a really fun day out with friends and family."

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A number of different workshops and activities will be on show for next weekend.

For children, there will be a feature called, 'Cookery Theatre', which will allow youngsters to create various snacks for picnics whilst learning about their taste buds. Children will also be able to enjoy a bouncy castle and have their face painted.

Also, a number of well-known faces in the food industry will be making an appearance at this year's festival, which includes three former MasterChef contestants.

Last year's winner Ping Coombes, 2011's winner Tim Anderson and this year's finalist Tony Rodd will put on their specialist and new dishes, whilst food writers Anne Shooter, Xanthe Clay will also make an appearance.

A BBQ arena, a tasting theatre, popup restaurants and a cocktail crash course are just more activities on show.

"I wanted to create a fun family festival focused on really good food and giving visitors the opportunity to meet top local chefs and artisan producers," Sue said.

• Food enthusiasts enjoying last year's festival

"I have a very small, dedicated team who love the festival as much as I do and we all work really hard to deliver each event so that helps take away the stress."

"There is always something new each year, which means visitors always have a better experience and return year after year.

"Also, I am really looking forward to meeting Tony Rodd – the MasterChef finalist with the elaborate moustache, as he will be cooking in the Chefs Theatre on Saturday."

The three-day event starts on Saturday, August 29 with tickets costing from £11 for one day concession tickets to £65 for one day group tickets.

Head to www.foodiesfestival.com/oxford for more details on the event and for listings.

Tadstock family festival

FAMILY friendly festival Tadstock returns to Oxfordshire for its 11th year next weekend.

The three-day festival on the Oxfordshire-Gloucestershire border launched in 2005.

Kencot Hill Farm in the heart of the Cotswolds will host family workshops and kids activities among musical highlights from Friday, August 28, to Sunday, August 30.

• Organiser Tad Czapski

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"The artistic talents are certainly diverse, and that's part of the recipe for Tadstock - pairing emerging young talent with seasoned performers to provide a learning and inspiring environment," organiser Tad Czapski told the Guardian.

"There's a lot going on, but we don't do wall-to-wall distractions, as everyone needs a little time to smell the roses."

A total of 27 acts will perform over the three-day event, with 10 musicians and bands showing off their musical talents on the festival's main stage.

Cheltenham-based folk, blues and jazz group Spice & The Readies, rap trio Grand Wa Zoo, guitarist Julia Harris and nine-piece ukulele assemble The Ukey D'ukes will all perform next weekend.

They will then make way for alternative rock group Dry the River, headlining the festival.

And in case that doesn't hold the attention of younger spectators, hula hooping, break dancing and face painting sessions will be run.

Whilst Cheltenham-based creative arts group Studio340 will help children develop musical skills with a number of music workshops.

"A festival is a celebration and Tadstock in particular is about helping youngsters explore and develop their creative talents and showcase them live in a safe and loving environment," Tad said.

"I hope people leave feeling relaxed and hopefully inspired by the great artistry and creativity of some of the young artists that Studio340 has nurtured.

"Also, I created this festival because it was a way to get close family and friends together so that they could spend time with each other."

Tickets cost from £10 to £55.

New Theatre's new programme is out

THE New Theatre has announced its new line-up of entertainment following the summer break.

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain will be the first act to embrace the George Street venue when they visit on September 3.

Eight musicians will perform some well-known hits with the string instrument, which has seen them perform together live for 30 years.

Next up will be comedian Roy 'Chubby' Brown.

The 70-year old will be the first comic of the new programme when he visits on September 4.

And 10 days later, families in Oxford can sing-a-long to 'Let it Go' and 'Do You Want to Build A Snowman?' as the 2013 blockbuster, 'Frozen' is screened on September 13.

In case you are not quite up to scratch with the words, lyrics will also crop up.

Ending the month will be Andrew Lloyd Webber's critically acclaimed rock opera, 'Jesus Christ Superstar', which focuses on the last week before he was crucified.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The show will be in Oxford from September 28 to October 3.

October will see a wide variety of comedians and musicians making their way to city this autumn.

Big name music acts such as Squeeze (October 20), the incredibly popular Rat Pack Vegas Spectacular Show (October 21), the first ever Britain's Got Talent winner Paul Potts (October 28) and The Magic of Motown (October 31) will visit the New Theatre during the month.

Comics such as former Monty Python, Michael Palin (October 18), and Mock the Week presenter, Dara Ó'Briain (October 23), will also be at the George Street theatre during October, which will also see an appearance from Harry Enfield and Paul Whitehouse.

The two comics who are known for their award-winning sketch show, 'Harry and Paul', will be on their first ever live tour after 25 years of working together.

On October 25 the two friends will bring back characters such as Kevin The Teenager, The Scousers and Julio Geordio.

November will be mainly a month of music.

Jools Holland's Rhythm and Blues Orchestra will kick off the month on November 1 before a stage version of the 1992 film 'The Bodyguard' makes its way to the stage from November 10 to November 21, with 2008 X Factor winner Alexandra Burke starring in the production.

Dutch singer Caro Emerald and former Pop Idol winner Will Young will also be at the New Theatre in November, before The Sensational 60s Experience ends off the month.

The final month of the year will see The New Theatre's chosen pantomime, 'Annie' entertain audiences, as the family fun show will be in town from December 15 to January 3.

• Roy 'Chubby' Brown will be at The New Theatre on September 4

BBR launches 'Super 225' package for MX-5

• A Mazda MX5 BBR

FOLLOWING the huge success of its Super 200 upgrade package for the 2005 onwards 2.0-litre Mazda MX-5 Mk3, 3.5 and 3.75 models, Mazda performance specialist BBR have unveiled the ultimate tuning conversion for the soon-to-be-end-of-life NC models.

Called the BBR Super 225, the new upgrade is available as a complete package for a drive in, drive out installation onto the stock 2.0-litre Mazda MX-5, or as a retro fit onto BBR Super 200 equipped cars.

"Compared to our hugely successful 260-380bhp turbocharger conversions for the MX-5, normally aspirated tuning can seem relatively expensive," BBR diredctor Neil Mckay.

"Therefore target power figures aside, our primary objective with the Super 225 program was to retain as much of the original Mazda electronics system as possible."

The end results for the BBR Super 225 package are a 224.9 bhp at 7900 rpm and a stunning gain of 67 bhp over the stock 2.0-litre MX-5's 158 bhp output.

However, the peak power figure tells only half the story of the BBR 225's driving experience, because over 150 bhp is available all the way from 4500 rpm to the 8000 rpm rev limiter, highlighting the flexible nature of the conversion.

Careful development by BBR has ensured that the Super 225 package meets the UK MOT emissions and will run on either 98 or 95 octane fuel.

Priced at £3,490 for a DIY option or £4,295 for a drive-in, drive-out installation, the BBR Super 225 is available now.

Owners of BBR Super 200 converted cars can migrate to this new level of performance for just £2,495 fitted.

The complete BBR Super 225 upgrade for the 2.0i Mazda Mk3, 3.5 and 3.75 MX-5 models consists of the following components:

- BBR stainless steel 4 into 1 exhaust manifold
- BBR high performance intake and exhaust camshafts
- BBR 3.5 inch diameter branded tailpipes with stainless steel clamps
- BBR badges for front wings and bootlid
- Drive by wire controlled direct to head shaftless AT Power individual throttle bodies
- Bespoke AT Power / BBR curved inlet extensions
- CNC machined 20mm alloy inlet ram pipes
- MAP block assembly (enabling OEM Mazda MAP sensor installation)
- Ramair foam air filter (Optional BBR airbox and replacement OEM intake for trackday use)
- BBR Engine breather system

O'Dowda lifts United in sublime 3-1 win

A STUNNING first-half substitution from manager Michael Appleton and a wondrous performance from Kemar Roofe led Oxford United to their first win of the season in a 3-1 victory over Notts County.

County went ahead in the first half through a Thierry Audel header before Patrick Hoban was substituted straight afterwards for Callum O'Dowda to come on and put United back into the game.

The Irishman then turned provider as he played in Roofe to blast United in front shortly after the restart before Danny Hylton fired home from close range for United's third as they maintained their unbeaten start to the season.

Thierry Audel headed County in front unmarked from a free-kick in on 19 minutes against the run of play and the goal spurred County on.

Hoban was then brought off for O'Dowda, which completely changed the game as United immediately livened up with the midfield passing flowing well.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

On 36 minutes the ball fell to O'Dowda who took his time before powering a shot past Carroll.

The second half saw Oxford dominant on the ball and after 49 minutes O'Dowda's trickery in the area allowed him to play a ball in which Roofe snatched from Scot Bennett's feet to fire home to put the U's in front.

A mazy run from Hylton saw him win a penalty, only for Alex MacDonald to barrel his shot into the arms of Carroll on 57 minutes.

Roofe was given the chance to finish County off with ten minutes to go but his shot was too high.

Two minutes later, Hylton stepped up to blast a third past Carroll after his initial effort was saved.

Hylton was subbed off to fan's cheers for Ryan Taylor and new signing John Lundstram was able to make his debut as he came on for Roofe.

Pepperell misses the cut in Wisconsin

FRILFORD Heath golfer Eddie Pepperell missed the halfway cut for the US PGA Championship at Whistling Straits, near Wisconsin on Friday.

The 24-year-old shot a nine-over-par over par total of 153 for his two rounds, adding a second round of 75 on the Thursday to a poor round of 78.

The golfer ending up tying for 132nd at the tournament with a total of nine over par at the tournament, which was eventually, won by Australian Jason Day who scored twenty-over-par.

The sixteenth hole proved to be the lucky hole for the golfer's first round showing, with a stunning eagle three at the par-five-hole, where he went under par for the first time.

However, his putting earlier that day had been an issue as he hit triple-bogey eight on the fourteenth hole, which crippled his chances of making the cut.

Pepperell's fellow Brit Justin Rose performed well, getting to the final day with an overall score of fourteen-under-par, finishing in fourth.

Pepperell had spent time in Oxfordshire ahead of the championship, not playing since his momentous outing at The Open where he finished in 49th place.

Smith rides to seventh in feisty Ceske Grand Prix

A DETERMINED race from Oxford's Bradley Smith saw him battle to a seventh place finish at the Grand Prix Ceske Republiky on Sunday.

Once again, Smith finished as the leading satellite reader aboard his Yamaha YZR-M1.

He had started the weekend in fine form, as he finished in fith place in the warm up and when the 22-lap race began, he shot to third position after an impressive start.

However, after battling with Andrea Dovizioso for positioning he slipped back to sixth place by the end of the first lap.

Dani Pedrosa then took over the 24-year-old on lap seven and with half the way race gone; he managed to hold on to his seventh position.

The result saw Smith pocket another batch of points as he continues his position of fifth in the Moto GP world championship standings.

Smith said after the race: "It's a good achievement to finish as the top satellite bike again and the result concludes a positive weekend for us in the Czech Republic.

"All weekend the team has done a fantastic job and I really enjoyed fighting for the front row in qualifying yesterday.

"I'm fifth and we will continue to fight as hard as possible to remain in that position so I am super exciting about continuing this run."

GROSJEAN TARGETS POINTS AT 'WORLD-BEST' SPA RACE

LOTUS F1 driver, Roman Grosjean says he will be doing 'everything he can' to win points for his team at the Spa-Francorchamps circuit in Belgium this weekend.

The Enstone-based team are targeting points on the famous circuit which see's F1 return from its summer break.

Grosjean finished the Hungarian Grand Prix in the points in seventh whilst his Venezuelan team-mate, Pastor Maldonado finished the race in 14th.

The French driver is currently 10th in the Driver's Championship and called the circuit 'one of the best' in Formula One.

He said: "Spa as we all know is one of the best tracks we go to. As a driver it is like a dream circuit with elevation change, quick corners, medium speed technical corners and some good strengths for overtaking.

"It's a great track as there's so much to think about over a lap.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

That's true if you're on a qualifying lap trying to maximise your speed at every point.

"It's the type of place where the differences between cars can be highlighted and sometimes you see a car go really well here."

Maldonado hailed the circuit as 'amazing' and that the corners are unlike anything a driver feels anywhere else in the world.

He said: "It's for sure one of the best circuits in the world and is unique in every way, making it very special."

"Spa is the type of track where you get great memories whenever or whatever you are racing. But of course the ones that really stick in the mind are the victories."

Maldonado previously won at the circuit in the World Series at Renault in 2006 and won in the GP2 Series in 2008.

His highest qualification place at the circuit was sixth in 2012 with Williams F1 and Maldonado is looking to replicate that form this weekend.

Both drivers elected to spend their summer break with their respective families, taking the pressure after a patchy first half of the season that saw Lotus F1 struggle to pick up points despite the driver's best efforts.

Grosjean added: "I've been mainly relaxing with my family. It's great having the shutdown, as it's a valuable time in the season to allow us all to recharge our batteries.

Maldonado added: "I spent as much time as possible with my family. It's good to not have any pressure for a couple of weeks so you can clear your head."

Saints' to take on the Thunder

AMERICAN FOOTBALL: Oxford Saints will face off against Sussex Thunder in the first round of the play-off this Sunday.

The match is regarded one of the biggest games in the club's history with the Saints losing a pre-season friendly against the Brighton-based side earlier this year.

The match kicks off at 2.30pm at Brighton Rugby Football Club in Waterhall Road, Brighton.

Hornets too good for the Blues in rout

OXFORD RL were swiped aside by Rochdale Hornets in a crushing 54-16 defeat at Pennine Way in Hemel Hempstead on Saturday.

The game had been delayed by thirty minutes to allow the visitors get to the ground, but that didn't deter their game as Brad Hargreaves got the ball rolling for them.

Oxford rallied through Lee Land, scoring his first try for the club as both team's conversions were good.

The Hornets then struck through Jordan Case and Mike Ratu going over, with Paul Crook scoring one of the conversions.

Before half-time the visitors added another double through Dave Hull and Danny Yates, once again, only one conversion was added.

Dale Bloomfield went over for Rochdale straight after the restart with Crook adding the extras.

Alex McClurg was next on the team's score sheet as he went over with Crook kicking true before Oxford responded through a Danny Thomas try and Kitson scored the conversion.

James Dandy then went over for the visitors with Matty Fozzard joining him as Crook kicked both conversions.

Bloomfield scored his second of the game shortly afterwards with Crook kicking true before Oxford responded with their third try as Luke Gardiner touched down and Kitson added the extras for the Blues for the last time.

Oxford are now twelfth in the table with the Hornets rising to fifth in the table.

Bubb's penalty rescues City a point

A LATE penalty from Oxford City star Bradley Bubb secured a point for his side in the Vanarama National League South in a 2-2 draw with Basingstoke Town at Marsh Lane on Tuesday.

Town's Liam Evner-Marum struck the post with only sixty seconds on the clock before Basingstoke capitalised on their sustained pressure with Enver-Marum's cross headed home by Lloyd Macklin.

City's Alejandro-Adrian Santiago expertly worked himself into a great position in the 32nd minute and slotted home from close range..

Basingstoke put themselves in front with just under twenty-five minutes to go as Macklin won a free kick on the left and Louie Soares stepped up, firing it past the near post.

Oxford were given a chance to get back into the game on 72 minutes after Kynan Isaac was fouled in the area and Bubb stepped up to slam the ball past Aaron Howe which sealed the point for City.

Barry's boys hit nine past Bashley

WANTAGE Town produced a performance to remember in a 9-0 thrashing over Bashley FC on Tuesday.

The win was Daniel Barry's side's first win of the season and went ahead after only three minutes in after Adam Bruce was brought down in the area and Ben Whitehead slotted home.

Nick Thorne added a second with just five minutes in the clock as Wantage ran rampant in the Bashley half.

Whitehead then grabbed his second of the game, robbing a Bashley defender before firing a shot across the keeper with 35 minutes played.

Bruce was then picked out in the box from a Thorne cross and the sides went in at half time at Alfredian Park with the score 4-0.

Whitehead collected his hat trick shortly after the restart with a good finish before Bruce added his second of the game on the hour mark.

Freds captain Stuart Cattell then added his first of the season after silkily finishing off a Sam Barber corner to make it seven.

The Bashley 'keeper was then brought off after Whitehead was brought down just outside the box in 75 minutes and Whitehead then added his fourth of the game with a free kick.

Bruce then wrapped up the goals for the Freds with a coolly taken finish with eight minutes to go cap off a memorable evening.

The win means Daniel Barry's side are now in fifteenth position in the Southern League Division One South & West with the side set to face Shortwood United at Alfredian Park on Saturday.

Appleton backs Roofe to continue scoring form

OXFORD United manager Michael Appleton has claimed that Kemar Roofe has got 'absolutely more in his locker' after the attacking midfielder snatched his third goal for the season in Tuesday night's 3-1 win over Notts County.

Roofe joined United for an undisclosed fee earlier this summer after spending time on loan at the Oxford club last season.

The signing is regarded as a coup for Appleton's side with a highlight for the 22-year-old coming in the League Cup triumph over Brentford last week when he lobbed the keeper from just outside the centre circle.

Appleton said of Roofe: "Roofe did better tonight but I can assure you he's got much more in his locker."

He went on to say that the partnership of Danny Hylton and Roofe is something that will only blossom over the course of the season.

Appleton added: "They worked really well together at the end of last season and the two of them had a big impact on the Notts game. They've got the shirts at the minute and I'm excited to see what they can do."

"Who knows how many goals they can score? As long as they keep chipping the ball into the back of the net then there's no stopping them."

DIDCOT GET REALITY CHECK AFTER FALLING TO DOUBLE DEFEATS

DIDCOT Town suffered back-to-back defeats this week after the side achieved maximum points from their first two games of the new season.

Captain Luke Carnell was sent off for The Diddy as they lost 3-2 to Mangotsfield United on Tuesday night at Cossham Street.

Ian Concannon and Jamie Heapy's side had looked to bounce back after a 2-0 defeat to Taunton Town on Saturday.

The Mangos broke through the Didcot defence in the eighth minute with defender Marcus Mapstone firing the ball into the net to put the homeside in front.

A Sam Elkins screamer then brought Didcot back into the game, just five minutes after going a goal down.

The Mangos regained their lead shortly after the restart after Steve Davies prodded home past Leigh Bedwell.

However, Didcot responded well once more and after the ball was lifted into the area Conor McDonagh headed past Joe Perry to level the scores for the second time.

Didcot were then dealt a blow after Carnell was sent off for an apparent elbow with twenty minutes left of play.

Davies then scored his second of the night seven minutes later to put the game beyond the Diddy before Mangotsfield substitute Karim Rendall was sent off in the later stages.

The result leaves Didcot in eighth position with four games played on six points with title contenders Taunton Town beating Wimborne Town on Tuesday night to top the table with twelve points.

Concannon's men will journey to AFC Totton on Saturday in a fixture, which looks to be a must-win to keep pace with the early pacesetters.

Totton have taken one point from their opening three games, conceding eleven goals so Concannon's boys will be looking to get amongst the goals from the go.

Didcot had entertained Taunton at the Loop Meadow Stadium on Saturday where goals from Josh Searle and Jordan Rogers scored in the third and 43rd minute respectively to give Didcot their first defeat of the season.

Celebrating Excellence

Our students are highly successful and go on to do some extraordinary things! We are extremely proud of all our students, for the challenges they overcome whilst studying with us and the ambitions they continue to pursue when they leave.

Many of our students progress onto traditional avenues such as apprenticeships, university and employment, with some exploring some more unusual progression routes. In this year's leavers there are a variety of exciting success stories. Dan Grisman is a Level 3 Public Services student who has recently passed the aptitude test to commission into the RAF as an Intelligence officer. Max Hilleard, a Level 3 Sports student, has secured a place on a volunteering scheme in Africa and Tom Legge, a Level 3 Media student, is going onto study at the Backstage Academy in Wakefield after working on the production of Reading Festival.

These students only show a small amount of the College's success stories with so many other exciting and wonderful achievements happening every year. To find out more about our students and their accomplishments visit www.abingdon-witney.ac.uk.
